

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – March 30, 2017

Fairfield Homes, Inc. Hires Three New Employees

Lancaster, OH – Fairfield Homes, Inc. recently hired three new employees to join its growing team.

Maureen Callahan was hired as a Regional Manager. She brings over 15 years of Section 8 and Tax Credit Housing experience. She holds a bachelor's degree in sociology with a minor in city and regional planning from The Ohio State University. Prior to joining Fairfield Homes, Inc., Callahan was a compliance specialist for the WODA Group in Columbus, Ohio.

Rachel Morris was hired as a Controller. She has a bachelor's degree in accounting and forensic accounting from Franklin University. Prior to joining Fairfield Homes, Inc. she was the fiscal officer for Child Care Resources, Inc. in Zanesville, Ohio.

Jason Sheets joined Fairfield Homes, Inc. as an IT Support Technician. He holds several degrees including two associate's degrees from Hocking College for applied science electronics and applied business network system. Sheets also has a bachelor of arts in leadership and ministry from Ohio Christian University and a master of pastoral care and counseling from Ohio Christian University. Prior to joining Fairfield Homes, Inc., Sheets was the director of support services at Ohio Christian University.

"We are thrilled to welcome our most recent team members," said Jennifer Gorsuch Walters, President of Fairfield Homes, Inc. "We value their unique experiences, varied backgrounds and commitment to success."

To learn more about Fairfield Homes, please visit fairfieldhomesohio.com.

###

Media Contact: Julie Theado, Krile Communications, 614-774-6358 – julie@krilecommunications.com