

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – September 20, 2017

Don Cox Retires from Gorsuch Realty and Fairfield Homes

Lancaster, OH – Fairfield Homes, Inc. and Gorsuch Realty congratulate Don Cox on his retirement effective October 31, 2017. Cox joined the organizations in 1986 in a dual capacity as vice president/broker for Gorsuch Realty Co. and vice president/sales manager for Fairfield Homes, Inc.

“Don is a tremendous asset to our team and has seen the company through various stages of growth,” said Leonard Gorsuch, Chairman of the Board, Fairfield Homes, Inc. “Don will be greatly missed. We’ve always appreciated his loyalty and commitment to our community.”

Cox graduated from Ohio University in 1974 with a bachelor’s in marketing and management. He became a broker in 1978. He owned and managed his own real estate firm from 1977-1986.

He is a past president of the Lancaster Board of Realtors as well as past chairman of many committees. He chaired the professional standards committee for 16 years. He is currently serving as vice chair of the Lancaster MLS Committee of which he has been a director for 15 years. Cox has also been a director of the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce 1993-1998 and more recently from 2006-2011. Don taught Real Estate Practices and Principles part-time at Ohio University Lancaster and Chillicothe campuses for 22 years. He was the director for the American Heart Association from 2005-2010 and serves on the Fairfield Medical Center committees for the Heart Walk.

Cox has been appointed trustee by the Fairfield County, Ohio Common Pleas Court for various commercial properties.

He was named 1986 Ohio Association of Realtors Realtor® of the Year and Broker of the Year in 1990 by the Lancaster Board of Realtors®

To learn more about Fairfield Homes, please visit fairfieldhomesohio.com.

###

Media Contact: Julie Theado, Krile Communications, 614-774-6358 – julie@krilecommunications.com