Fairfield Homes, Inc. Hires Two New Employees

Lancaster, OH – Fairfield Homes, Inc. recently hired two new employees to join its growing team.

Naomi Phillips joined Fairfield Homes, Inc. as operations manager. Prior to joining Fairfield Homes, Inc. she was the regional vice president western region for Wallick Properties Midwest where she was responsible for overseeing 50 properties. She is a graduate of Lancaster High School and received a completion of Ohio real estate classes from Hondros College. She holds several certifications in tax credit, fair housing and rural development.

Phillips worked for Gorsuch Management from 1990-1997.

Ashley Nicodemus joined Fairfield Homes, Inc. as a senior account. She holds a bachelor's in business administration – accounting from Campbell University in North Carolina. Prior to joining Fairfield Homes, Inc. Nicodemus was a staff accountant for MPW Industrial Services in Hebron.

She resides in Granville with her husband and two boys. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, baking and spending time with family and friends.

“We are thrilled to welcome our most recent team members,” said Jennifer Gorsuch Walters, president of Fairfield Homes, Inc. “We value their unique experiences, varied backgrounds and commitment to success.”
